Profile

Joshua E. Campbell is an associate in the Seattle office of Holt Woods & Scisciani LLP. Mr. Campbell's practice areas include personal injury, premises liability, products liability, and construction defect.

Mr. Campbell was born in Everett and raised in rural Snohomish County before going to Western Washington University in Bellingham where he received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Spanish. After college, he worked at a grocery store in Woodinville, Washington before starting as a legal assistant at a creditor's rights firm in Bellevue.

Mr. Campbell attended Seattle University School of Law where he received his Juris Doctor. During law school he worked as a legal research intern at a personal injury and immigration firm in downtown Seattle. He graduated cum laude and soon after became licensed to practice law in Washington. Prior to joining Holt Woods & Scisciani LLP, Mr. Campbell was a review attorney at a large firm in downtown Seattle, assisting clients in document production and electronic discovery.
